Morehead State University

In 117 years, the sweep of history has carried Morehead State University and its predecessor institution, the Morehead Normal School, from one makeshift classroom to the high-tech world of Internet-based classes and a radio telescope which reaches from a campus hillside literally to the stars.

One student appeared on the first day of class in October, 1887, in a little, rented cottage where the Adron Doran University Center now stands. Tens of thousands of students have come from the foothills and mountains, the river towns and the hillside farms of East Kentucky and beyond to seek the means to a better life in this beautiful, forested valley. Our first president, Frank Button, and his widowed mother, Phebe, literally spent their lives bringing "a light to the mountains" by founding a church-sponsored school to train teachers. The institution came under state control in 1922 and achieved university status in 1966.

Today, Morehead State University has more than 9,000 students from 100 Kentucky counties, 42 states and 37 nations. They are enrolled on campus, at extended campus centers in Ashland, Jackson, Mt. Sterling, Prestonsburg and West Liberty, and several other locations in East Kentucky and across the globe through the World Wide Web. MSU has the state's best computer-student ratio in its computer laboratories and the campus is ranked among the safest in the nation.

Almost 50,000 persons have received degrees from MSU. Nearly 80 degree programs are available on the two-year, four-year and graduate levels through four colleges (Caudill College of Humanities, College of Business, College of Education, and College of Science and Technology) and the Institute for Regional Analysis and Public Policy. Two-thirds of the faculty hold doctoral degrees. MSU supports its missions of teaching, applied research and public service through an annual budget of more than $96 million.

Morehead State was the first institution in Kentucky to offer a complete degree program, the Master of Business Administration (MBA), totally through the World Wide Web. In addition, the University hosts graduate-level programs for nurse practitioners and physicians assistants through the University of Kentucky. The University is acquiring a satellite tracking system in partnership with NASA in the ongoing development of the new Space Science Center.

Also, the University has the statewide mission of preparing adult educators through the newly-established Adult Education Academy for Professional Development. Preserving the region's cultural heritage is the primary responsibility of MSU's Kentucky Folk Art Center and Kentucky Center for Traditional Music.

Dr. Ronald G. Eaglin took office July 1, 1992, as the 12th president of the University. He previously served as chancellor of Coastal Carolina University and vice chancellor of the University of South Carolina at Spartanburg. Dr. Eaglin currently serves on the Division I Board of Directors of the NCAA and is the senior state university president in Kentucky.

The University is located in the foothills of the Daniel Boone National Forest in Rowan County, midway between Lexington, Ky., and Huntington, W.Va., on Interstate 64. MSU is a charter member of the Ohio Valley Conference in NCAA Division I and sponsors 18 intercollegiate sports for men and women. The football Eagles compete in the Pioneer Football League. Our coed cheerleading squad has won 14 national championships and the all-girl squad has four national titles.

Affirmative Action Statement

Morehead State University is committed to providing equal educational opportunities to all persons regardless of race, color, national origin, age, religion, sex, or disability in its educational programs, services, activities, employment policies, and admission of students to any program of study. In this regard the University conforms to all the laws, statutes, and regulations concerning equal employment opportunities and affirmative action. This includes: Title VI and Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, Executive Orders 11246 and 11375, Equal Pay Act of 1963, Vietnam Era Veterans Readjustment Assistance Act of 1974, Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967, Sections 503 and 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, and Kentucky Revised Statutes 207.130 to 207.240. Vocational educational programs at Morehead State University supported by federal funds include industrial education, vocational agriculture, business education, home economics education and the associate degree program in nursing. Any inquiries should be addressed to: Francene L. Botts-Butler, Affirmative Action Officer, Morehead State University, 150 University Street, 314 Allie Young Hall, Morehead, KY 40351. Telephone: (606) 783-2085.

Dr. Ronald G. Eaglin, President

Dr. Ronald G. Eaglin, an outspoken proponent of student success strategies in college administration, has served since July 1, 1992, as the 12th president of Morehead State University.

A native of St. Louis, Mo., President Eaglin came to Kentucky from the chancellorship of Coastal South Carolina University in Conway, S.C. Previously, he was vice chancellor for academic affairs at the University of South Carolina at Spartanburg. Earlier, he was the southeast regional director of the American College Testing Program (ACT).

A former chair of Kentucky's Conference of University Presidents, Dr. Eaglin holds a bachelor's degree in biology and mathematics from Southeast Missouri State University, a master's degree in student personnel administration from Southern Illinois University, and a doctoral degree in educational psychology from the University of Utah.

President Eaglin's expertise in student retention has been highlighted in a research report he wrote for the American Association of Colleges and Universities (AASCU) on the role of campus chief executives in helping students be successful in college. Dr. Eaglin initiated a study of the teacher education program on the MSU campus. He was instrumental in this process as he challenged the University to review and improve its teacher education program. In addition, he was involved in the formation of a P-16 regional council which is based at MSU and brings together representatives from the public and private colleges in the area, school superintendents, local government leaders, members of state agencies and CEOs of regional businesses and industry.

The University's CEO has made presentations across the country on student retention and the role of the president in accomplishing this goal. Involved with numerous publications on this topic, he edited the book "Five Habits of Successful Students" published by the International Organization for Student Success.

President Eaglin has announced his intention to retire at the end of this calendar year. A national search for his successor has been initiated by the Board of Regents.

Brian Hutchinson, Interim Director of Athletics

Brian Hutchinson became Morehead State University's Interim Director of Athletics on September 6.

He has spent the last five years as associate director of athletics, serving as sport administrator for football, golf, baseball and volleyball as well as the athletic training operation, managing day-to-day operations of the department, managing the department's annual budget and serving as the department's ticket manager.

Hutchinson previously served as development director for two years, before assuming the post of director of development and marketing, which he held for nearly one year. Prior to that, he served 18 months as a regional development officer for the University and six months as a staff assistant in the University's Office of Development and Alumni Relations. In the 2000-01 year, he served an internship with the Ohio Valley Conference office, assisting with the league's baseball championships and summer meetings while earning a Master's Degree in Sports Administration.

A 1996 cum laude graduate of Morehead State University, Hutchinson earned a Bachelor of Business Administration, while specializing in real estate. During his senior year, the Louisa, Ky., native served as the Student Government Association President and was a student representative to the MSU Board of Regents. He has remained active in the alumni association of Sigma Alpha Epsilon, and he holds memberships in the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics, National Association of Athletic Development Directors, and CASE.

Hutchinson was also instrumental with the development of the 2001-06 strategic plan and MSU's successful CHOICES GRANT application. He has attended numerous development and athletics administrations conferences and has been a presenter for the NCAA YES! clinic program hosted by the OVC. Hutchinson served as the director for the 2002 OVC golf championship and as the director of the 2003 OVC volleyball championship and assisted with the operation of the 2002 PFL Championship Game. He has also been the departmental manager for the renovation of the University Softball Field and the interior of Allen Field, as well as the installation of the Jayne Stadium scoreboard among many other facility improvement projects within athletics.

Hutchinson and his wife, Elizabeth, have two sons, Benjamin and Riley. They reside in Morehead.

Paula Jackson, Assistant Director of Athletics/Senior Woman Administrator

Jackson comes to MSU after serving in several capacities in Atlanta, Ga., including the Marketing and Promotions Director and Owner of Sports Enfocus, the Director of Development and Event Management of the Clark Atlanta University Athletic Booster Association, Inc., and as a member of the Atlanta Falcons Professional Football Team's Game Day Operations Staff.

At CAU, she was the Assistant Director of Athletics and Senior Woman Administrator from June 2001 to May 2003, where she coordinated all travel arrangements, game-day operations, the CHAMPS/Life Skills program, football season ticket sales and student-athlete eligibility. In addition, she also assisted with marketing, academic advising, budget reports and sports information duties, and served as the committee chair for the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Conference's Senior Woman Administrators and on the NCAA Management Council.

Jackson has a varied and extensive background working in athletics, as well as marketing and public relations. In addition to her other experiences, she has served as an Account Manager for Paladin, a Marketing and Sales Manager for MTV Networks Affiliate Sales and Marketing, a Deputy Campaign Manager for Southwest Operations for the Committee to Re-Elect Bill Campbell for Mayor of Atlanta, the Director of Marketing and Public Relations for Burks Bailey Mann, the Assistant Director of Marketing and Promotions for Today's Athletes For Tomorrow International, a Market Research Consultant for the Metro Atlanta Rapid Transit Authority and a freelance Marketing and Public Relations Consultant for several Atlanta-based organizations.

Her responsibilities at Morehead State will include all areas of compliance, certifying that the athletics program adheres to all NCAA regulations, which includes eligibility, recruitment, the NCAA Clearinghouse, playing and practice seasons, reporting potential NCAA violations and financial aid.

In addition as the SWA, she will act as the liaison for all women's teams to the Director of Athletics; represent the University on all relevant committees; coordinate the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee; assist the sport administrator for women's basketball, men's and women's tennis and rifle; serve as the event manager for baseball and softball; and oversee all department-sponsored sports camps and clinics.

A native of Baton Rouge, La., Jackson received her bachelor's degree from Southern (La.) University in broadcast and print journalism with a minor in public relations in 1986. While there, she was a member of the cheerleading squad. She earned her Master of Business Administration from Clark Atlanta in 1991.

She belongs to many organizations, including the Georgia Women's Intersport Network, Women in Sports and Events, Black Women's Sports Foundation, the Women's Sport Foundation and Sports Divas. Jackson resides in Morehead, with her son Blake.

David Lichtenstein, Assistant Director of Athletics

David Lichtenstein, an experienced marketing and promotions specialist in the field of intercollegiate athletics, begins his first year as Assistant Director of Athletics at Morehead State University. Lichtenstein joins the MSU staff after serving as Director of Marketing and Promotions for the athletic department at Northern Illinois University.

He has also served as assistant athletics director for marketing and promotions at Texas-El Paso, marketing and promotions manager for athletics at South Dakota State University, as a marketing coordinator for athletics at New Mexico State University, and in the athletic marketing and promotions departments at the University of Oregon and at Louisiana State University.

Lichtenstein will assist in all phases of the Eagle athletics program, especially in the areas of marketing, promotions, corporate sponsorships and event management. He is a member of the National Association for Collegiate Marketing Administrators.

A native of Baton Rouge, La., Lichtenstein holds a bachelor's degree from the University of Arkansas and a master's degree from The Ohio State University. He was a letterwinner in swimming at both Arkansas and Tulane University.

Valerie Ousley, Athletic Academic Coordinator

A 15-year employee of the University, Valerie Ousley joined the athletic staff in January 2004 in the newly-created position of Athletic Academic Coordinator. Her responsibilities include directing and operating the Eagle Academic Success Center, supervising study hall and computer labs, monitoring academic progress of the student athletes, managing the CHAMPS/Life Skills program, developing programs that support and highlight academic accomplishments of student athletes, providing assistance to coaches and the Assistant Director of Athletics/Senior Woman Administrator, and nominating student-athletes for NCAA and OVC awards.

Ousley spent the last two years as a Data Base/Research Analyst for Institutional Research and Computer Applications, where she served as a problem-solver and wrote documentation for the University's AIMS system and Web site. Prior to that, she spent 13 years as the receivables manager in the Office of Accounting and Budgetary Control. There, she oversaw the billing and collection of student accounts, and helped write University policies and procedures. She also spent one year working for the IRS as an auditor.

At MSU, she has helped develop academic and financial policies, and served on numerous committees. She has performed various administrative functions and responsibilities, including working with MSU's off-campus centers. A University fellow and a member of the MSU Visionary Society, Ousley has taught classes in accounting, marketing and management.

A native of Martin, Ky., Ousley earned two degrees from MSU. She received a Bachelor of Business Administration in Accounting in 1987 and then a Master's of Business Administration a year later.

Away from the University, Ousley and her daughter, Stevann, rescue and rehabilitate abused animals on their farm in Owingsville, Ky.

Greg Sheen, Head Coach

Greg Sheen, a highly-respected club coach and former Dayton assistant, has been hired as Morehead State's second women's soccer coach.

Sheen helped lead Dayton to three NCAA appearances in his four years with the Flyer program. In addition, UD finished ranked in the top 25 twice—16th in 2001 and 21st in 2002. As an assistant from 1999-2002, Dayton posted a 58-20 record and won the Atlantic-10 regular-season title each year. The Flyers also captured two A-10 tournament crowns during that time and advanced to the NCAA "Sweet 16" in 2001 and the NCAA Second Round in 1999. Their 1999 appearance in the NCAA Tournament was the first in the history of the program. They also qualified for the NCAAs in 2002.

While at Dayton, Sheen's primary responsibilities included recruiting, much of the day-to-day training of the team, and coordinator of the off-season player development program. In addition, he served as UD's primary goalkeeper coach. During his four years, the Flyer netminders posted team goals against averages of 1.14 in 1999, 0.95 in 2000, 1.14 in 2001 and 0.67 in 2002.

He is coming to MSU from a position as the Director of the Dayton Soccer Academy, an all-girls club which he founded in 1999 that boasts over 170 members. He is responsible for the development of all the players and teams, and running the day-to-day operations of the club. In 2003, he received the Ohio South Youth Soccer Girls Coach of the Year award. Over the last several years he has served as a staff coach for the Ohio South Olympic Development Program, as well as a staff coach for the Region II and III ODP Program from 1997 to 1999.

From 1990 to 1999, he was the Director of Coaching at the Atlanta TopHat Soccer Club. In that position, he was responsible for the training and development of over 800 players between the ages of six and 19, and also ran the club's annual summer camp. During his very successful stint with the TopHatters, the club won more than 50 state championships and he was named the Georgia Youth Soccer Girls Coach of the Year in 1999.

In 1998, three teams from the club, two of which Sheen coached, won the Region III Tournament and advanced to the United States Youth Soccer Association (USYSA) national tournament. In 1999, he also led the club's U-18 team to the USYSA nationals.

Sheen played professionally for two seasons each with the A-League's Atlanta Ruckus and the National Professional Soccer League's (NPSL) Atlanta Attack. As a defensive midfielder for the Ruckus, he started every game in 1995 and the team finished as the league runner-up. The next year, he missed several games due to an injury, but started every contest in which he suited up. He also played the 1990 and 1991 campaigns on the indoor circuit with the Attack, which advanced to the league semifinals in both years.

A native of Arlington, Texas, Sheen played for two years collegiately at North Texas, before leaving for the professional ranks. As a freshman striker at UNT, he led the team, which was ranked as high as ninth nationally, in scoring. In his sophomore campaign, he finished as the squad's third-leading scorer.

As a prep standout, Sheen earned all-state honors in high school. In his senior year, his team was ranked No. 1 in Texas, before falling in the state playoffs.

Sheen earned his bachelor's degree in general studies from Dayton, and he owns an Advanced National Diploma from the National Soccer Coaches Association of America and a United States Soccer Federation "B" License.

He and his wife Andrea have three daughters, Meghan, Hannah and Catherine.

Fran Kulas, Assistant Coach

Fran Kulas, a former collegiate head coach and the current Kentucky Youth Soccer Association's Director of Coach and Player Development, joins the MSU staff this season as an assistant coach. A highly-respected coach and former collegiate player, Kulas will assist with the on-field coaching and training, with special attention to the Eagle goalkeepers.

For the past three years, Kulas has worked at the KYSA, the state's governing body for youth soccer. There, directing the state Olympic Development and Coaching Education programs is among his duties. Prior to the KYSA, he served as the women's head coach of Wittenberg University. In his three years there, he led the program to its first winning campaign in five seasons and to conference tournament appearances in 2000 and 2001. Academically, the team earned the NSCAA/Adidas College Team Academic Award each season during his reign. He coached 14 all-conference, three All-Ohio and three all-region players. His Tiger teams produced a 24-25-5 overall record during his tenure, highlighted by a 10-win season in 2000. While in Ohio, he was also active in the youth coaching scene.

Prior to arriving at Wittenberg, the Newark, Del., native, was an assistant coach for the men's team at Delaware during the 1998 season. In 1999, he was the head coach of the A.I. duPont High School girl's team in Delaware, which won the state championship and finished the season ranked fourth nationally.

Kulas also has coached in the professional ranks, serving as an assistant during the 1997 and 1998 seasons for the Delaware Wizards' of the United Systems of Independent Soccer Leagues (USISL).

Kulas played collegiately at Delaware Tech C.C., where he was a team captain and starting goalkeeper in 1994. He then transferred to Delaware, where he graduated in 1999 with a degree in English literary studies.

He holds the United States Soccer Federation (USSF) National "A" and "Youth" coaching licenses. In addition, he has been published in such magazines as Soccer America, Success in Soccer, World Class Coaching and Performance Conditioning.

Kulas resides in Lexington, Ky., with his wife Jennifer, and son, Quinn.

Derek Reid, Graduate Assistant Coach

Reid, a four-year Berry College standout, will assume responsibilities as the team's graduate assistant coach. His duties will include working with both goalkeepers and field players, while also assisting with daily practices, recruiting and handling administrative duties. A May 2003 graduate, Reid is pursuing his master's degree in sports administration at MSU.

Reid spent four seasons as a member of the highly successful Viking squad, which advanced to the NAIA tournament in his junior campaign and to the NAIA regionals his final three seasons. BC won both the TranSouth Athletic Conference regular season and post-season tournament his junior year, and the league's regular-season title in his sophomore campaign. A national power, Berry compiled a 56-27-3 overall record during his tenure with the team.

A four-year starter on defense, Reid was in the opening lineup for 65 games, while playing in a total of 74 contests in his career. He had his best season offensively in 2002, before missing the final two games of the season with an injury. As a senior co-captain, he tallied two goals and two assists. For his career, he accumulated seven points.

The Falkirk, Scotland, native was a standout performer on many levels in his home country. He starred for the national U-18 Schoolboys' Team as a midfielder in 1999. Reid also played four years with the Grahamston Club squad and spent six years on his team at Larbert High School, which won the Scottish Cup in 1997.

Reid's coaching experiences include developing the new boys' and girls' programs at Armuchee High School, where he served as an assistant coach in the team's inaugural season in 2002. He spent the 2002-03 year as a student teacher there in health and first aid. He also taught a class on soccer rules and regulations. In addition, he also served two different stints in the 2001-02 year as a physical education practicum teacher at Glenwood Primary School and McHendry Elementary School, and was a student observer at Berry College Elementary School.

Reid earned a spot on the Berry Dean's List in his final three semesters. During his career, he also was an active member of the Berry College International Club and worked with the community-service oriented ABC Program.

Brittany Hill, Student Assistant

A three-year team member, Brittany will serve as a student assistant this year. She will assist with the team's administrative duties, help coordinate the travel and serve as a host for on-campus recruiting. She has served as the President of the Student Athletes Advisory Committee (SAAC) last two years, and will represent the soccer team in her second stint as a SAAC member. For three seasons, she has served as soccer's administrative assistant and coordinated the operation of the Eagles' Nest during basketball games. Brittany has been a two-year member of the Student Alcohol and Other Drug Task Force on campus. A sport management major from Columbus, Ind., Hill made the MSU Dean's List last spring. As a four-year standout on the North High School soccer team, she played every position on the field during her career. As a senior, she was named as a first alternate to the Indiana State Select Team. She earned all-area honors and team MVP accolades as a junior, while being selected as the squad's Most Improved Player as a sophomore. During her high school career, Hill also was a four-year letterwinner as a shot put and discus thrower for the track and field team, and served as a student athletic trainer.

For just the second time in the seven-year history of the Morehead State women's soccer program, the Eagles will have a new coach. Greg Sheen enters the picture this year after serving as the director of the highly-regarded Dayton Soccer Academy in Ohio. He will have his work cut out for him as the Eagles are coming off a 2-13-1 campaign in which it finished in ninth in the Ohio Valley Conference.

Sheen is no stranger to challenges. He started the DSA in 1999 and helped develop it into one of the premier club programs in Ohio. In 2003, he earned the Ohio South Youth Soccer Girls Coach of the Year award after leading his U18 Premiere team to the Ohio South state title.

His contacts in the Dayton area helped him land six players from the Buckeye State in his first recruiting class. Sheen also signed five others. Altogether, the 11 newcomers tie for MSU's largest recruiting class in school history. Combined, the group brings athleticism and quickness to the squad.

However, the Eagles will not have to rely solely on new faces. Eleven letterwinners, including eight starters, plus two redshirts, return from last year's squad. The 24-player roster is the largest in school history and should give Sheen more depth than the Eagles have had in past years. Injuries and a smaller roster have hampered the Blue and Gold over the last several years, but the first-year coach plans to run multiple players in and out of each game all season to keep the team fresh on the field.

MSU will field a young squad in 2004, with only two seniors on the roster. Goalkeeper Stefani Workman has started the bulk of the games, including all 16 last fall, in her three-year career in the Blue and Gold. The athletic Workman finished third in the OVC in saves last season. Her lone classmate is midfielder Megan Guinan, who has started 48 of MSU's 49 games during her three-year career. Guinan also ranks among the Eagles' top five all-time assist leaders and top-10 scorers.

Workman will enter camp looking to hold down her starting role. The Eagles' primary starter in 2002, sophomore Jennifer Miller, who sat out last season, also returns to the mix looking to regain her No. 1 spot. A mid-season addition to last year's team, freshman Whitney Lee, also redshirted will push the other three for time in the net.

Sheen plans to implement a 4-3-3 lineup, but will change according to game situations. From the outset, that means that returning starter Betsy Holbrook, who played in the midfield last year, and four talented newcomers will vie for three starting spots on the front line. The group will be asked to significantly contribute to the scoring, after the team lost all-time points, goals and assists leader Christina Moore to graduation. As the only returning forward with experience, Sheen expects Holbrook to be the team's go-to scorer. Last fall, she made an instant impact by collecting seven points in the team's two exhibition games. Holbrook also may play some in the midfield.

Twins Rebekah and Rachel Kendall will give the team immediate offensive punch. The duo are coming off highly-accomplished high school careers in West Virginia, where they earned the state's "Forward" and "Defender of the Year" honors, respectively. Both will play on the front line for the Eagles. Each was a three-time first-team all-state selection at Sissonville High School, while Rebekah scored 130 goals in her career. Local standout Twila Hall from Morehead, Ky., also was a big-time scorer while leading Rowan County High School to impressive heights. A first-team all-state choice in 2003, Hall scored 97 goals in her career. Sheen says the fourth frontline recruit, Jackie Borda, is the fastest member of the team. She earned all-Dayton area honors last season at Northmont High School. Challenging Guinan for starting roles in the midfield will be junior Jenna Adams, two sophomores—Liz Rhodes and Trista Stark—and a quartet of freshmen. Adams, a two-year starter is a solid ball-control player who will help organize play in the midfield. Rhodes, a key reserve last season, and Stark, who is moving up from the defense last year, will add depth and challenge for playing time.

Sheen is very familiar with Dayton-area standouts and teammates at Carroll High School Laurie Lacroix and Amy Noble. Lacroix was a first-team all-conference and all-league choice, while Noble played for Sheen at the Dayton Soccer Academy. The other two freshmen also had outstanding high school careers. LaGrange, Ky.'s Ashley Davis was a two-time all-state selection, while Brittany Bryson earned first-team All-Southwest Ohio honors as a senior at Guinan's alma mater, Amelia High School in Cincinnati.

On defense, the team will be anchored by two-year returning starters, sophomores Megan Collins and Sarah Graf. Sheen believes Collins is the Eagles' best athlete and is expected to anchor the middle of the defense. Graf, who missed much of last year with an injury, is still recovering from off-season surgery, but is expected to be at full strength this fall. Junior Elise Wahlstrom will move from forward to the backfield and is expected to make an immediate contribution due to her athleticism. Two other returnees, junior Casey Mowery and sophomore Erin Ceddia, also will vie for playing time. Ceddia started 11 games on the back line last season, while Mowery was in the opening lineup seven times.

A pair of tall and talented freshmen will push the others for playing time. Jen Rinehart was a third-team all-state selection last year for Circleville High School and will likely battle Collins and Ceddia for time as a central defender. Natalie Peterson was an all-conference choice for perennial Ohio powerhouse Beavercreek High School, which was ranked among the state's top-10 teams in two of her seasons and sported a 49-6-2 record in her last three years as a starter with the club.

Sheen wasted no time putting together a challenging schedule for his first tour with the Eagles. Just seven home games are on this year's slate and half of this fall's opponents had a winning record last season. The 18-game regular-season schedule also is the largest since 2001. Despite the team's youth, a challenging schedule and a new coach and system, Sheen believes his squad can be very competitive in his inaugural campaign. If the Eagles buy into his philosophy, play hard and are willing to rise to the challenge, MSU should grab its highest win total in several years.

Athletic Facilities

Morehead State has at its disposal modern and well-equipped facilities for the use of its athletic teams. Included among these are Jayne Stadium, the Academic-Athletic Center, the George A. Sadler Tennis Courts, John "Sonny" Allen Field, Wetherby Gymnasium and the University Field (softball), to name a few. Among the facilities used for purposes other than competition is the Phil Simms Weight Training Facility, a building dedicated by the former Morehead State and New York Giants football star, which allows MSU student-athletes every opportunity to enhance their strength and conditioning. In addition, there is a spacious athletic training facility in Jayne Stadium complete with all of the resources needed to enhance the training of MSU student-athletes and allowing them to rehabilitate and recover from injuries quickly and safely.

Athletic Training

One of the major support services offered to the athletes at Morehead State is the main athletic training center located at Jayne Stadium. This facility provides a wide range of options for the treatment and rehabilitation of sports injuries. It contains four whirlpools, four electric stimulators, two ultrasound units and nine treatment tables, along with a wide range of exercise and rehabilitation equipment.

Morehead State also staffs two remote athletic training rooms located at the AAC and Wetherby Gym. The athletic training staff includes the Athletic Training Director Richard Fletcher, A.T., C.; assistant athletic trainer Jamey Carver, A.T., C.; and three graduate assistant athletic trainers, Brandon Davis, Joe Grigsby and B.J. Geasa. In addition, six students provide ancillary support. Other vitally important members of the medical staff include, orthopedic surgeons Tom Fossett MD and team optometrist,

Thomas McHugh OD. The athletic training staff also utilizes the University health clinic located on campus at Allie Young Hall. The University Clinic staffs Nurse Practitioner and Physicians contracted through St. Claire Regional Medical Center.

Jayne Stadium

The 2004 Eagle Soccer team will host their home games at Jayne Stadium. Jayne Stadium has a capacity of 10,000 and a playing surface of AstroPlay.

Dear Friends:

Morehead State University is committed to upholding the highest integrity within all procedures and practices of the athletic department. We are pleased to publish this note as a reference to understanding often confusing NCAA regulations.

The NCAA defines "representatives of athletic interests" as alumni, friends and boosters of the University. All member institutions are held accountable for their representatives' actions. One violation could jeopardize the eligibility of any or all Eagle Athletic programs.

As a general rule, anyone who has financially supported Eagle Athletics, been a member of any booster organization, or who has supported Eagle Athletics is considered a "representative" of Eagle Athletics. If anyone has questions regarding these types of relationships, please contact Brian Hutchinson, Interim Director of Athletics, (606) 783-2088.

Prospective student-athletes can be defined as a student who has started classes in the ninth grade or any younger student-athlete who has received a benefit from the institution. These individuals may only be recruited by MSU coaches who have passed the NCAA Recruiting Rules Examination. While "representatives" of Eagle Athletics may speak to any of these individuals via telephone or in person, a recruiting effort must not be made. Also, no student-athlete or prospective student-athlete may receive any extra benefit outside of the support provided by the institution. For any questions regarding this description, please contact Paula Jackson, Assistant Director of Athletics, (606) 783-5136.

These are certainly not all the regulations any "representative" of Eagle Athletics must remember. However, they provide a good outline of the types of things that could endanger the eligibility of any MSU Athletics program. Again, feel free to contact us if you have any questions. Thanks again for your support of Morehead State Athletics.

Sincerely,

Paula Jackson
Assistant Director of Athletics/Senior Woman Administrator

Brian Hutchinson
Interim Director of Athletics

Morehead State University Intercollegiate Athletics Mission Statement

Morehead State University believes that Intercollegiate Athletics is an integral part of the University and that a broad-based intercollegiate athletics program encourages student participation and involvement in the total life of the University. In addition, intercollegiate athletic programs play a positive role by supporting the academic and public service missions of the University.

- Each athletics program shall be conducted in a manner that protects the physical, mental, emotional, and social welfare of each student-athlete.
- Each student-athlete, through academic counseling and individual assistance, shall be encouraged toward completion of degree requirements and graduation.
- Each athletics program shall adhere to the principles of fair play and amateur competition as defined by the National Collegiate Athletic Association and the Ohio Valley Conference.
- Each athletics program shall be administered at the highest level that the University's resources will allow so that each student-athlete will have the opportunity to compete to the fullest extent of his or her ability.
- The athletics programs at Morehead State University shall make every effort to educate and serve the student-athletes of the University's primary service area and their respective educational institutions.
- The athletics program will accommodate student's interests and abilities in a manner that is nondiscriminatory to both sexes and reasonable with the University's resources.
- The athletics program shall adhere to the University's Affirmative Action Plan promoting equal opportunity for all employees and students, as well as applicants for employment and student participation.

Ohio Valley Conference

Entering its 57th year, the Ohio Valley Conference continues to build on the success that has made it the nation's eighth-oldest NCAA Division I conference. In 2003, the OVC extended its geographical footprint into Alabama for the first time, expanding the league's membership to a record 11 institutions with the addition of Jacksonville State University and Samford University.

The OVC's proud past dates back to 1948, but seeds for the new league were actually planted in 1941. It was then that Roy Stewart, the athletics director at Murray State, Charles (Turkey) Hughes, the athletics director at Eastern Kentucky, and Kelly Thompson, the public relations director at Western Kentucky, first broached the idea of forming a new conference. Discussions were put on hold by World War II, but reemerged Feb. 27-28, 1948 at the Kentucky Hotel in Louisville as the three original institutions combined with Morehead State, Louisville and Evansville to form the OVC.

In the 1950's, the OVC became a pioneer on a much more significant scale socially. During times of racial segregation, league member Morehead State became one of the first non-traditionally black mid-southern institutions to accept a black student. In 1958, Marshall Banks earned athletically-related aid at Morehead, which signed a second black athlete, Howard Murphy, a year later. In 1961, Murphy earned all-conference recognition as a halfback in football. With racial barriers broken, the rest of the institutions in the league began to provide educational and athletic opportunities to African-Americans.

In the late 1970's, women's athletics began somewhat of a rebirth on the national scene as the NCAA began sponsoring and marketing women's sports. Recognizing the need to provide increased opportunities for female athletes, the OVC established women's championships in the sports of basketball, tennis and track in 1977, with cross country and volleyball added over the next four years. Those sports were initially governed by the Association of Intercollegiate Athletics for Women, but the overall strength of women's programs in the league was demonstrated by the automatic bids the OVC instantly received when the NCAA became the governing body in 1982.

Through the early years of the league, administrators wrestled with fan behavior due to the close proximity of the conference members and the intense rivalries which developed. Just as it did decades ago, the OVC took the leadership role on what has become a national issue. In 1995, the OVC implemented a first-of-its-kind "Sportsmanship Statement", a policy which promotes principles of fair play, ethical conduct and respect for one's opponent. The statement has become a model for others to follow across the nation, and has answered the challenge of the NCAA Presidents Commission to improve sportsmanship in collegiate athletics. Additionally, the Conference in 2003 implemented the OVC Institutional Sportsmanship Award, which is presented to the institution voted by its peers to have best exhibited the standards of sportsmanship and ethical conduct as outlined by the OVC and NCAA.

Over its 56 years, OVC teams have garnered national championships and bowl games in football, along with national team or individual titles in the sports of rifle, cross country, track and golf.

The OVC has also produced several Olympic athletes, including Murray State's Morgan Hicks, who is a member of the 2004

United States Olympic Rifle Team. In addition, some of the greatest players in professional sports were educated at OVC institutions. The list includes former greats such as basketball's Clem Haskins (Western Kentucky) and Bubba Wells (Austin Peay) and two-sport star Steve Hamilton (Morehead State) to present-day standouts like basketball players Popeye Jones (Murray State) and Trenton Hassell (Austin Peay), football players Chad Bratzke (Eastern Kentucky), Marquis Walker (Southeast Missouri), Chris Watson (Eastern Illinois) and Brent Alexander (Tennessee State), baseball players Brandon Berger (Eastern Kentucky), Kirk Rueter (Murray State), Kerry Robinson (Southeast Missouri) and Jamie Walker (Austin Peay) and professional golfer Jeff Sluman (Tennessee Tech).

The playing field isn't the only place where OVC athletes are working hard. The league also recognizes excellence in the classroom. The prestigious OVC Academic Achievement Banner is awarded annually to the league school whose athletes produce the highest grade point average when compared to the general student body. Also, six Scholar-Athlete Awards are presented yearly to male and female athletes, while others are commended for their academic success by being Medal of Honor recipients or earning a spot on the Commissioner's Honor Roll. Additionally, the Steve Hamilton Sportsmanship Award, in honor of the former Morehead State student-athlete, coach and athletics director, is presented annually to a junior or senior student-athlete with significant athletic contributions who best exemplifies the characteristics of sportsmanship and citizenship.

The vision of leadership demonstrated by the Founding Fathers in 1948 remains alive today as the Ohio Valley Conference prepares for the future. One example is in regard to the current trend in collegiate athletics administration for increased involvement of university presidents in setting policies and making rules. The presidents of OVC institutions, however, have always governed the Conference, long before presidential governance became a national theme.

The Ohio Valley Conference sponsors the following sports: baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, tennis and track for men, and basketball, cross country, golf, soccer, softball, tennis, track and volleyball for women. In addition, the OVC also sponsors the combined men's and women's sport of rifle.

Over the last decade, the league has grown, not only in the number of athletics opportunities it provides for students, but in terms of the number of institutions in the conference. In 2003, Jacksonville State University and Samford University became the newest members of the OVC, joining Southeast Missouri State University (1991), the University of Tennessee at Martin (1992) and Eastern Illinois University (1996) as the league's most recent additions. Other current representatives include charter members Eastern Kentucky University, Morehead State University and Murray State University, along with Austin Peay State University, Tennessee State University and Tennessee Technological University.

MSU Sports Information

Randy Stacy Sports Information Director

Stacy begins his 18th year as sports information director after serving 16 months in the MSU Development Office.

Stacy, a 1977 graduate of Morehead State University, is the former assistant sports information director at the University of Kentucky. While at UK, Stacy was responsible for all media and public relations for the men's basketball program as well as press row operations.

Stacy served as men's sports information director at MSU for a brief time in 1977 before assuming a full-time position at Tennessee Tech.

The native of Carr Creek, Ky., and graduate of Carr Creek High School (now Knott County Central), also served as a graduate assistant in the Office of Public Information and was a news and sports reporter at WMKY radio while at MSU.

Stacy is a member of College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA), the Morehead Optimist Club and Elliottville Baptist Church. He is married to the former Jeanetta Caudill. They have two sons, Brad and Jared.
